DETAILED ACTION

1. Figure 2 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

2. Claims 13-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 13, lines 5-6, the recitations "adjusting at least one aspect of said device" and "when one or more criteria are met" are vague and indefinite because it is not clear to what they refer. In other words, what constitutes "the adjustment of at least one aspect of the device" is unclear? Also, what constitutes the "one or more criteria" is unclear? Correction and/or clarification is required.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2629

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-2, 5-6, 9 and 13-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Feinstein(6,466,198B1).

Feinstein discloses a method and an apparatus for controlling a display(12) on a portable electronic device(10) comprising at least one accelerometer(82, 84) for measuring a motion of the portable device(10), at least one magnetic sensor(364, 368) for measuring the motion of the portable device(10), a logic means(100) for calculating and analyzing the motion of the portable device for determining the position of the portable device(column 7, lines 1-27; column 10, lines 60-67; column 11, lines 1-35; column 13, lines 14-45).

In claim 18, as to the limitation "one gyroscope", the use of such device for measuring motion of the portable device is also shown to be old by Feinstein(column 11, lines 1-12).

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 3-4, 7-8 and 10-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Feinstein in view of Walker(6,072,467).

Feinstein is discussed above. Walker is cited to show that the concept of detecting a position of a portable electronic device based on coordinates of a modeled predefined spherical path(e.g., Javal coordinate system) is old(column 9, lines 38-67; column 10, lines 1-15). Thus, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify the system of Feinstein with the above noted teachings of Walker such that to determines the position of the portable device(10) based on mathematical modeled spherical shape pre-defined path because both references are related to utilizing accelerometer and/or magnetic sensors for determining the position of an electronic portable device thereby controlling a display of the portable device.

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Flack et al, Kaplan, Noguera, Paley, Motosyuku et al, Lands and Fateh et al are made of record to show various types of determining a position of a portable electronic device by utilizing accelerometer and /or magnetic sensors thereby controlling a display device.

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Mike Fatahiyar whose telephone number is (571)272-7688. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday from 9:30 to 6:00.
